WHAT SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS BELIEVE
As a Christian church, Seventh-day Adventists are a faith community rooted in the beliefs described by the Holy Scriptures. Seventh-day Adventists describe these beliefs in the following ways: God's greatest desire is for you to see a clear picture of His character and find His love irresistible. The Bible is God's voice, speaking His love personally to you today. Jesus is Creator, Sustainer, Savior, Friend, God's Son, and God Himself! God's vision for you is life as He lives it! God loves you, and wants to give you the highest quality of life imaginable. God loves you, and wants to spend time with you personally, one on one, as two close friends. The Seventh day (Saturday) is an extra-special part of the relationship. The Bible describes the seventh day as the one day God has set aside for focused fellowship with His people. God has named that day "Sabbath" and asked us to spend it with Him. "Remember the Sabbath day," He says, "to keep it holy." The Sabbath is a whole day to deepen our friendship with the Creator of the universe! A day when we're together, Jesus with us and us with Jesus. Eternal life, peace, purpose, forgiveness, transforming grace, hope: Everything He promises is ours. Accept His gifts, and you immediately become an active part of His family, and He joyfully becomes part of yours. For more information on “What Seventh-day Adventists Believe” visit http://www.adventist.org/beliefs/fundamental/index.html
DR. HONORÉ’S QUOTE FOR THE WEEK
”A little neglect may breed great mischief...for want of a nail the shoe is lost, for want of a shoe the horse is lost, for want of a horse the rider is lost.”
WELCOME TO THE BEREAN FAMILY
“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another” (John 13:34-35). Jesus tells his disciples, the way people will know that we belong to Him is by the love we show to each other. Here at the Berean Church, we would love to demonstrate God’s unconditional love to you from the minute you walk through our doors. It is my prayer that through our Varied Ministries, Sabbath School, Bible Study, Divine Worship Service or Wednesday evening “Hour of Power” that you will have an encounter with Jesus Christ. We invite you to join the Berean Movement in becoming a “House of Prayer” for all peoples.” If you are new to our worship service, please fill out the guest information card and turn it in to the Interest Coordinator or place it in the receptacles located at the rear walls of the church. If this is your second or even third time visiting, we consider you part of the Berean family. We are honored that you chose to worship our Creator with us today on this glorious Holy Sabbath Day. Dr. Richardson Honoré Senior Pastor, Berean SDA Church
